CESA 2017 Seminar & AGM Success

The 2017 Consulting Engineers South Africa (CESA) Seminar and AGM which was held on the 7th November 2017 at the Southern Sun Hotel OR Tambo Airport was a resounding success. The Seminar comprised of two sessions dealing with 'The funding and delivery of Infrastructure in times of political uncertainty', and 'The Transformation of the Consulting Engineering Sector'. The calibre of the speakers was excellent and the sessions were thought-provoking and interactive allowing for heated debate on a number of crucial industry-related topics. For more information on the Seminar and AGM, please click: <http://www.cesa.co.za/node/650>

Neresh Pather appointed CESA President

At the 64th Annual General Meeting held at the Consulting Engineers South Africa (CESA) Seminar in Johannesburg on Tuesday 7th November, Neresh Pather from Mott MacDonald Africa was inaugurated as President of the organisation for the next two years, succeeding Lynne Pretorius. Sugan Pillay, Managing Director of Zitholele Consulting was elected to serve as Deputy President of CESA for the same period. For more information, please click: <http://www.cesa.co.za/node/654>

CESA Women's Forum Launched

The Consulting Engineers South Africa (CESA) Women's Forum was successfully launched in October 2017 at a function held in Midrand that was sponsored by Aon and Knight Piésold. The first Women's Forum was held in November, hosted at Matleng Energy Solution's offices in Woodmead. The objective of the Forum is to provide women in the consulting engineering industry with structured support. Speakers at the Women's Forum launch event included CESA President, now immediate Past President, Lynne Pretorius who provided a formal introduction and an explanation of the 'Road to the CESA Women's Forum. MPA CEO, Malani Padayachee-Saman discussed 'Female Leadership in her own company, CSV

Water Associate Director, Dr Michele Kruger shared her thinking on why such a Forum was important for CESA especially in the context of retaining female engineering practitioners in the industry.

CESA 2018 Upcoming Events and Functions

The following provides some insight into some of the upcoming events for 2018.

CESA Presidential Media Breakfast

Representatives from select media houses in South Africa have been invited to attend Consulting Engineers South Africa (CESA)'s annual media briefing where the newly appointed President, Neresh Pather, will present his theme for the year. This event will be held at the Crown Plaza, Rosebank on the 30th January 2018.

CESA to host Infrastructure Indaba in Johannesburg South Africa

CESA will host its annual Infrastructure Indaba from 5-6 March 2018 in Ekurhuleni, Gauteng. The two-day session will bring together leading experts including government officials, consulting engineers and built environment professionals for the purpose of improved delivery and management of public infrastructure.

The event aims to foster partnerships between government and the private sector, particularly the engineering sector, and capacitate the channels of service delivery through cooperation and the development of common goals. The CESA Indaba 2018 will be a platform to engage, network and share best practice required for improved service delivery within the built environment.

FIDIC and GAMA member firms are welcome to attend this conference. Please visit our website at www.cesa.co.za for registration procedures or call our offices at +27 (011) 463-2022 and enquire with Bonolo Nkgodi, the Marketing and Events Manager, how you may go about doing so.

CESA School of Consulting Engineering

Consulting Engineers, their staff, their clients and anyone involved in the Built Environment can enhance their skills through training at our CESA School of Consulting Engineering. Please click here to view the school calendar: <http://www.cesa.co.za/node/162>
